

Join Our Webinar on the 19th May 2021 from 1430 HRS EAT

Topic - Trading in Agriculture and Food Products – Interfacing the Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT) & Sanitary and Phytosanitary (SPS) Measures for Market Access

Moderated by
Dr. Hermogene Nsengimana
Secretary General - ARSO

Speakers

Facilitating trade by the elimination of unnecessary and unjustifiable TBT and SPS Measures: The interplay between TBTs and SPS Measures in Key priority areas for Africa and strengthening cooperation and transparency amongst Stakeholders

Mr. Reuben Gisore - Technical Director, ARSO Central Secretariat

Compliant with the Agricultural TBT and SPS Measures in a Free Trade Area Single Market - the conformity assessment scheme and regime in the GCC - Council for the Arab States of the Gulf (GCC) Common Market

Eng. Abdesselam Benyaich, Head of Technical Regulations- Conformity Directorate, GSO - GCC Standardization Organization

TBT and SPS Measures in practice: TBT and SPS Measures as instruments for trade facilitation and Market Access for Agriculture and Food Products

Soukeyna Lalya Guille, Ingénieur Industries Alimentaires - Responsable Audit FSSC 22000 Version 5 - Responsable Audit ISO 9001 IRCA - Manager Qualité (TÜV) - Six Sigma Green Belt

Obtaining Phytosanitary Certificates for agro-food products and the private sector requirements and NTBs to trade: The effects of SPS and TBT measures on producers and exporters

Stephen Jakait, Business Development Specialist - FAIRTRADE Africa

Trade Effects of SPS and TBT Measures on Agricultural Products in Africa - fair and market-oriented trading system - The role of CODEX Alimentarius standards.

Mr. Hakim Mufumbiro, Coordinator, CCAFRICA Secretariat, CODEX African Region

Register Here: <https://tinyurl.com/tradeagriculture>

Read More on ARSO - www.arso-oran.org

Translation Provided in English & French

